27. A Farmer/ The Life of a Farmer (একজন কৃষক/ কৃষকের জীবন)

The life of a farmer is very hard, yet highly important for society. A farmer is a person who works on farmland to grow crops and produce food for the nation. He usually lives in a village and depends mainly on agriculture for his livelihood. A farmer gets up early in the morning and goes to the field with his plough and cattle to cultivate the land. He works from dawn to dusk under the hot sun, heavy rain, and sometimes cold weather. In Bangladesh, most farmers lead a miserable life because they earn very little from their hard labour. If the crops grow well, a farmer feels happy and hopeful. On the other hand, natural calamities like flood, drought, or storm bring sorrow and suffering to his life. Many farmers live below the poverty line and struggle to maintain their families. Although they remain neglected and deprived, farmers play a vital role in our country. Bangladesh is mainly an agricultural country, and its economy depends greatly on agriculture. Therefore, farmers are the backbone of the nation. 5. The Season I Like Most/Best (The Spring)

Bangladesh is a land of six seasons, and each season has its own charm. Among them, the season I like most is spring. I like spring because its pleasant weather, colourful flowers, and festive atmosphere.

The spring is one of the most delightful seasons in Bangladesh. It is the season of rebirth and renewal. It starts in the month of Falgun and lasts until Baishakh.

The weather in spring is simply magical. The bitter cold of winter gradually fades away, and the cool breeze brings a pleasant feeling all around. There is no heavy rainfall, no dark cloud, or no scorching heat of summer. The bright sunshine and blue skies enhance the beauty of nature.

The spring comes with the message of hope and enjoyment. The trees and plants put on new leaves. The nature wears a charming look. The flowers bloom everywhere, and the trees turn green, making the entire country look vibrant and colourful.

One of the best things about spring in Bangladesh is the festivals that come along with it. Pahela Falgun, the first day of spring, is celebrated with much enthusiasm and joy. People dress up in bright and colourful clothes, and the streets are decorated with flowers and banners. Basanta Utsav, the festival of colours, is also celebrated during this season.

Another reason why I love spring is that it is the perfect season for outdoor activities. The mild weather makes it ideal for outdoor sports, travelling, picnic, etc.

For all these reasons, spring is the season I like most. It brings comfort, joy, and a sense of celebration to my life.

10. My Favourite Game/ The Game I Like Most

All games are not equally amusing and interesting to us. Among the games I have a great fascination for football which is a popular game all over the world. It is full of thrill for both the players and spectators. It is an excellent form of exercise that makes the players strong and stout. These are the reason for which I like football more than all other games.

The game is played between two teams each consisting of eleven players. Of them there is a goalkeeper who prevents the ball from crossing the goalline. There are two full backs standing at a little distance from the goal posts. There are three half backs in a line midway between the forwards and backs who act both as defenders and offenders. There are five other players who play in the forward line. They try to push the ball through the goal posts. The whole game is divided into two equal halves with an interval of fifteen minutes. At the end of the first half each team changes its side. The game is generally played for ninety minutes.

In the field the referee is the supreme authority to conduct the game. His decision is final. Two lines men assist him to run the game smoothly and properly. During the play no player except the goalkeeper can touch the ball with hands. No player in the game can make any foul. In case of making any foul the referee can send any player off the field. The victory goes to the team that can score more goals than the other.

The game of football teaches us the principle of obedience to rules. It fosters the spirit of love, discipline and co-operation among the players. It develops team spirit and sportsmanship in the players.

There is nothing which is an unmixed blessing. Too much involvement in the game often makes students apathetic towards their studies. Rivalry in the play often leads to quarrell among the supporters in the gallery and spoils the thrill and joy of the game. Sometimes it goes to touch extent that the whole ground turns into a battle field. But inspite of having some negative sides, football is the most popular and exciting game in the world.

Word Meaning (শব্দার্থ) : defender – প্রতিরোধকারী। offender – আক্রমণকারী। supreme authority – সর্বোচ্চ কর্তৃপক্ষ, সর্বোচ্চ ক্ষমতাবান। smoothly – সুন্দরভাবে। except – ব্যতীত, ছাড়া। foul – ফাউল, অন্যায্য কাজ। principle – নীতি। inspite of – সত্ত্বেও। fascination – আকর্ষণ। spectators – দর্শক। interval – বিরতি। obedience – আনুগত্য। apathetic – বিতৃষ্ণা, নিস্পৃহ।
